NAVY WILL NOT RELEASE THE THREE MEN

Without a Requisition From Governor Bass.

Whether or not the police will be successful in getting the three sailors from the U. S. S. Washington who are wanted in connection with the break at the Army residence on Water street is a question. The civilian authorities made a demand for the men on Wednesday through the commanding officer of the vessel who took up the matter with the department at Washington.

Today the acting secretary of the navy, Beckman Winthrop, informed the captain of the vessel that the navy would not release them without extradition papers from Governor Bass. This would mean no end of red tape and much delay in clearing up the case.

The commanding officer of the vessel ordered a court martial and punish them aboard ship if the local authorities cared to have the case disposed of in that way, providing the police present any evidence in connection with the robbery.

ARMY AND NAVY REPRESENTED

General Frank Thorpe, U. S. A., and Mrs. Thorpe, of Washington, are at the Intervale House, at Intervale, N. H., where they have been joined by Major S. W. Saxton, U. S. A., (retired), also of Washington, and his daughter, Miss Saxton. They all are to remain for the season. Major Saxton recently celebrated his eighty-third birthday anniversary. Rear Admiral Wise, U. S. N., has arrived at Intervale from Portland and is a guest at the Bellevue. Officers of the Army and Navy set expected soon at this White Mountain resort are Lieutenant Commander Wilson, U. S. N., and Mrs. Wilson, who are now at Ogunquit, Me., and General C. G. Sawtelle, U. S. A., and Mrs. Sawtelle for a second visit.

SAILOR IN SERIOUS CONDITION

It is said that James Mayfield, the sailor from the U. S. S. Washington who was murdered Sunday morning last by Herbert McCauley with a bottle, is in a serious condition. The ship surgeon under whose care Mayfield now is says that he fears that the victim of assault will lose one eye if more serious results do not develop from the assault. City Physician Chapman, who dressed Mayfield's wounds at the police station was of the opinion at that time that it would be a long time before the victim of the assault would fully recover from the injuries that he had received.—Dover Democrat

POLICE COURT

Judge Adams presided at a session of police court which took up the greater part of the forenoon today. Albert H. Hilsop, plaintiff, Burpee Wood, defendant. The trouble was over a day book which Woods took from the stable office of Hilsop after Mr. Hilsop had purchased the business of Wood. Wood claimed that he had no intention of keeping the book, but wanted to take from it records relative to his business while he was proprietor of the stables and garage. The court found probable cause to hold Woods on the charge of larceny for the Superior court and bail in the sum of $250 was ordered until the case comes up at the October term. The book was placed in the custody of the county attorney, Ernest L. Gupitt represented Hilsop and John W. Kelley appeared for Wood.

COMMITTED SUICIDE BY INHALING GAS

Swartz, the Slayer of Little Julia Connor Takes His Own Life In New York Tenement House.

New York, July 18.—The body of Nathaniel Swartz, whose father informed the police that his son was the slayer of 13-year-old Julia Connor, was found this morning on the fourth floor of a tenement house on Christie street. Swartz had committed suicide by inhaling gas.

The body was identified by Detective Joseph Brennan. Swartz had hired the room eight days ago under the name of Max Hirsckowitz from Max Kaplan. Early today Kaplan smelled gas. On investigation he found Swartz in bed with the end of a gas tube that ran from the middle of the ceiling tied to his mouth. Examination by a hospital physician showed the man was dead.

Written in lead pencil on his collar were the words: "I am guilty and insane. Cursed be the beautiful makeup of women, which has made me passionate."

There were several pieces of newspaper lying around and on one of these was written the sentence: "I was sorry the minute after I did it. So don't cry for me."

A letter was found addressed to Swartz's mother, in which he confessed his guilt and told her not to cry her eyes out. Later Philip Swartz, a brother of the slayer of the Connor girl, identified the dead man as his brother.

Only a few days ago Swartz's father informed the police that his son had told him that he had killed the Connor girl. The father told Swartz that he had better go and commit suicide.

The house in which Swartz took his life is next door to one in which he lived for more than a year and which he left two years ago to go back to his parents. At that time he posed as a prize fighter and was well known in the neighborhood, yet on his return eight days ago was unrecognized.

That he had followed with intense interest the stories printed in the newspapers about his crime was made plain by the piles of newspapers found in his room. Before he lay down in his bed with the end of the gas tube in his mouth, he spread these papers around him so that he could see pictures of himself and of his victim on all sides.

Swartz, his husband said, would have been turned out of his room this morning for failure to pay his rent and the police thought that, fearful of the ordeal of finding another place of shelter and subjecting himself to the gaze of strangers, he finally brought himself to entertain the idea of suicide suggested by his father.

More About that Game at the Plains.

Mr. Editor:—I see my allusion to the game of baseball played at the Plains Sunday last has caused "one of the players" to take upon himself the nature of a male cow. I presume it is the same party that a few days ago was denouncing in a public place, the author of the first communication in defense of the Water street boys, as a sore head, and claiming that it was done to "crab the game" at the Plains, whatever that may be. Now the writer is not in any way prejudiced in this matter other than he does not believe that a crowd of would-be sports, should be allowed to desecrate the Sabbath day by playing baseball in a public place like the Plains. There are six days in the week for playing baseball and it would seem as though some of these would-be baseball players whose chief occupation is the frequenting of cheap pool rooms where Kelley pool and other leg-pulling games are in vogue, could find time for their game during the week. The assertion is made by "one of the players," that this

STILL DEADLOCK ON NAVAL BILL

The Conferees Fail to Agree on the Provision for Battleship.

Conferees are deadlocked on the paragraph relating to the naval appropriation bill relating to the naval increase. Neither side has authority to yield on the battleship provision in view of the decisive votes taken in their respective houses. When another vote is taken in the lower house, it is the belief of the Senate Naval committee that one battleship will be authorized. Then an effort will be made to get the senate to accept one. "The Senate conferees are standing out for two battleships," said Senator Tillman of So. Carolina, one of the conferees. "The House conferees want none at all. I am in the difficult position of wanting one, but wanting that one to be the biggest practicable fighting ship that can be constructed, even if it costs $25,000,000." Members of the Senate committee are attempting to convince Mr. Tillman that better results could be accomplished by building four new battleships for that sum.

CLARK GRIFFITH'S OWN STORY OF THE SENATORS' CLIMB

The Washington club has broken one record this past month that I believe will stand for years, says Clark Griffith in the Baseball Magazine.

They won seventeen straight games, and what is more unusual, the entire Western trip was included in this series. I believe no other club has ever duplicated this feat.

We took four games from St. Louis, four from Chicago, four from Detroit and three from Cleveland. We also took one from Boston and one from Philadelphia before our winning streak was broken. Naturally, I am very much pleased with this good showing and I believe that Washington is now represented for the first time in its history with a winning club.

Many people had spoken favorably of Washington at the beginning of the season, and the first few weeks were rather fortunate for us. Then we struck a spell of bad luck, during which we lost four straight to the "Highlanders." Everybody was certain that was the finish of Washington. The Capital City team had been at the bottom of the ladder for so long that few people thought they could possibly creep up on the leaders this year.

I suppose everyone was surprised when Washington started on the great series of victories, a series that was broken only by the absence of Walter Johnson and our meeting with the strong Philadelphia club, the champions of the world. I had hoped to make it at least twenty and thus equal the world's record, but circumstances combined against us in the finish and we failed. However, as I have just said, we did take one record and that is setting up a standard for any other club who cares to follow.

I have been asked to write an account for the Baseball Magazine of just how we made this great record. I lay it entirely to the hustling ability of my boys and their willingness to play the game as I had instructed them. They are mostly all youngsters, but they have listened carefully and tried hard to carry out the instructions I have given them. I have drilled them very hard and they have responded faithfully. It is their work that has made possible our great success.

It has always been the policy of my management to have enough skilled veterans to form the foundation of a good club, but to depend for the principal dash and vigor of my team on young players, who had all the life and enthusiasm of their age and who would strain every nerve to make good. I have always said that I would rather have a young player, one who is up and coming all the time, than to have a star who had grown old in service. The young man would be able to learn my system, while the older veteran would be apt to depend upon his own. A poor system rigidly followed is better in governing a club than half a dozen different systems, though all are good.

System means team play, and without team play no club could win seventeen straight victories.

I have a bunch of young players that any manager would be proud to own. They are a well-balanced club. There are no big stars, except Johnson, who is the greatest pitcher I have ever seen, but I have a number of good men, particularly McBride and Milan. I have also three great, young catchers: Henry, Alsmith and Williams. This alone is a big factor in a team's success.

When I went to Washington, it was with the sole aim and intention of building up a winning club. True, I did not expect to do it quite so soon, though I felt sure that it would come in time. Now that we have made so good a start and showed so much speed and ginger, I believe the fans all over the circuit will know, from this time on, that Washington is strictly on the baseball map and that it is a team to be reckoned with when it comes to talk of pennants.

It was Home-Run Baker of the Athletics who broke up our winning streak. I know now how the Giants felt last year when that same player lost them the World's championship. There were two out in the ninth inning and I was just counting on one more game to add to our long series when it happened. It was a good, clean, home run drive and our hopes for another world's record were shattered. Still, that is all part of the game and I am not complaining. We could not hope to go on forever without a setback and we did enjoy our success as long as it lasted.

There was nothing of luck about our winnings. They were all fairly earned by good, snappy playing. The records will show that we scored two runs for our opponents' one; that we outplayed them in every department of the game. It is true that there is a swing to a succession of victories which lays the players up to their top notch form and makes them all play to the limit of their speed. When a club is winning, every man is on his toes. He hits and fields and runs bases as he has never been able to do before. Nothing succeeds like success.

The young, untired players who made up the bulk of the Washington club in our great series of wins, showed this clearly. They played like veterans and for a while nothing could stop them.

Now that we have met our Waterloo at Philadelphia, we shall have to begin all over again. That, too, is part of the game. No club can win all the time, and we must expect to be defeated, but since we must start anew we shall do it with great cheerfulness. Furthermore, I will continue to say, as I said at the beginning of the year, that in the season of 1912 any club that plays Washington will know that it has been in a game, when the contest is over. No pennant predictions, only that but that is enough to hold other clubs of the American league for a little while.

Three Views of Jim Thorpe, the World's Greatest All Around Athlete

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, July 19.—Jim Thorpe, the Sac and Fox Indian, winner of the pentathlon and decathlon events at the Olympic games, is the greatest all around athlete in the world. He is proficient in every branch of sport. In most events he has few equals. He is a fast sprinter, can travel a middle distance course in fast time and can negotiate a long run as well as many noted distance runners. Over the hurdles and in the jumps he is in the championship class. He can put the shot as far as many of the stars in this branch and can hurl the hammer and discus in masterly style. Besides the track and field sports, Thorpe is a crack baseball player. Last year he played quarterback on the Carlisle football team and was considered by many experts to be the leading man in the position. Thorpe is also a clever boxer and a fairly good wrestler. He has starred in lacrosse, tennis, basketball and handball. Thorpe is six feet tall and weighs over 180 pounds, but is built so symmetrically that he looks small compared to the other noted all-round champions. In the opinion of experts he is a perfect type of athlete. His build is a combination of a champion sprinter and weight man. He has powerful legs, and the muscles of his shoulders, arms and back are beautifully developed. After Thorpe won the decathlon, King Gustave of Sweden called him over to the royal box and said, "You, sir are the most wonderful athlete in the world."

WOLGAST AND RIVERS MATCHED

Los Angeles, Cal., July 19.—Ad Wolgast and Joe Rivers will meet at the Vernon arena on Labor day. Tom McCarey, manager of the Pacific Athletic Club, said today, in their second bout for the lightweight championship. Rivers signed articles today and Wolgast will sign tomorrow. Details of the battle were arranged, excepting the selection of a referee.

Wolgast will get a guarantee of $15,000, and Rivers, who received $7500 for his last battle will receive $8000 win, lose or draw. The referee will be selected later. It is pretty sure that it will be a Los Angeles man.

Wolgast said he needed a rest and would go to Oregon for a hunting trip, and later to his home at Cadillac, Mich. Manager Levy, for Rivers, hearing these reports sought McCarey and immediately affixed his signature to the articles calling for a Labor day battle. Rivers did likewise.

LAND'S A KNOCKOUT

Bombardier Wells Puts Tom Kennedy Away.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Bombardier Wells, champion heavyweight of England, knocked out Tom Kennedy in the eighth round of a scheduled 10-round bout at Garden A C last night.

A right hook to the jaw stretched Kennedy on his back before referee John was able to count the fatal seconds over the prostrate fighter. Kennedy's seconds threw in the sponge as a token of surrender. Kennedy had to be assisted to his corner by the referee and his seconds.

The end came after Wells had fairly battered Kennedy to shreds. Near the finish of the eighth session, when Kennedy had missed a swing and was half turned away from Wells, the Englishman sprang forward, and placing all of his power behind his right fist, drove it into Kennedy's jaw.

In the semifinal, Eddie Gordon of Milwaukee gave Walter Brooks of Boston a severe beating in six rounds. Brooks scored the only knockdown, which occurred in the second round.

Jimmie Quinton Again Shades Teddy Murphy of Boston.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., July 19.—Jimmie Quinton of this city again shaded Terry Murphy of Boston in their return bout at the Western Gateway A. C. in this city last night. The boys boxed 12 rounds and both finished strong, but a good left jab gave Quinton the decision by a narrow margin.

Ashe Whips Williams.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—Holding his own for four rounds of the six, with George (Kid) Ashe, Larry Williams, becoming overconfident in the remaining six minutes, lost the decision in the windup at the Broadway A. C. In the final two rounds, Ashe gave Williams a thorough beating.

SENTENCE FROM

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Sentence of John Mitchell, vice president of the American Federation of Labor, for contempt of court, was not imposed by Justice Wright today. The verbiage of the waiver sent by Mitchell to any irregularity in imposing sentence in his absence did not meet with the approval of the "committee of prosecutors" and another paper has been prepared and forwarded for signature to Mr. Mitchell, who is in Oregon.

Attorney F. L. Siddons, for the labor leader, told the court that he had telegraphed the form of waiver or request dictated by Mr. Darlington of the committee to Mr. Mitchell with the suggestion that he sign it in the presence of a witness and forward it at once to this city. Mr. Siddons stated he expected that the paper would reach him by July 26.

Justice Wright responded that the court had intimated that it would consider any request for sentence on the absent leader when made by him. Until that request was received there was nothing on which the court could take action. He passed the matter until the desired request from Mr. Mitchell is received next week.

Suggestion From Counsel.

The suggestion of imposing sentence in the absence of Mitchell had come from his counsel, Justice Wright stated, and the court had not attempted to indicate what action should be taken by Mitchell, merely remarking that the court would consider any request made by the labor leader.

The paper offered to Justice Wright and to which Mr. Darlington took exception is dated at La Grande, Ore., signed by Mr. Mitchell, and reads: "I hereby authorize, and empower the firm of Raleigh, Siddons & Richardson to consent to the imposition of a sentence upon me with the same effect as if I were personally present in court to receive the same, writing, as far as the reception of such sentence is con-

NEW WIRELESS LAW PASSED

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The conference on the new Wireless law framed from the lessons of the Titanic disaster and requiring wireless operators on duty constantly aboard ships, was adopted by the House yesterday, and now requires only the President's signature to make it law.

The conference report was on Senator William Alden Smith's bill introduced shortly after the ocean tragedy. The measure requires that all vessels carrying 50 or more passengers have at least two wireless operators and that they be on duty continuously. It is further required that the wireless apparatus be powerful enough to receive and transmit messages at least 100 miles and that each vessel have an auxiliary power supply, independent of the ship's main electric plant, to maintain communication.

The bill was framed largely on the evidence in the Senate investigation of the Titanic disaster, which showed the failure of nearby ships to hear or answer the big liner's calls of distress.

One feature of the measure places the operators under the direct orders of the master of the vessel and provides a fine of $100 upon the operator for every violation. The law would apply to all vessels entering or leaving American ports and to cargo-carrying steamers on the ocean and the Great Lakes.

YOUNG MAN CHARGED WITH FORGERY

Morris Hurd, aged 23, is under arrest at the police station, charged with the alleged forging of the name of P. T. McWilliams to several checks. Young Hurd was employed by Mr. McWilliams and the police claim that he has several times made out checks for amounts varying from $14 to $38 and signed Mr. McWilliams name to them and cashed them. About ten of the checks, representing about $299, have been located. It is alleged that Hurd passed these in one or two stores.

Mr. McWilliams discovered the forgery when he was notified by the bank that he had overdrawn his account. An investigation revealed the phoney checks.

A STAND PATER
ASKED TO RESIGN

LOS ANGELES, Calif., July 18.—Because of his criticism of the proposed new Progressive party as set out in a statement issued by him in Washington on Monday, United States Senator John D. Works has been asked to resign by Lieut. Gov. A. J. Wallace, Meyer Lussner, chairman of the California Republican State Committee, and other Progressives.

The request was telegraphed to Mr. Works in Washington and was signed by 40 Progressives.

The telegram read as follows: "We feel that your statement, given publicly through reactionary newspapers, was unnecessary, unwise, based upon lack of information and in certain of its conclusions, false. Because of the fact that you owe your place in the United States Senate to the support you received from the Progressive Republican voters of California, it'll become you neither to scold nor criticize them for the determination to carry forward the fight along the only lines open to them under the law.

"Due to the fact that you are reputed to represent, in the United States Senate, the cause for which we have contended so successfully in California, your criticism can have no other effect than to unfairly injure the very movement that you were chosen to foster and promote. To employ the same line of reasoning that you use in your statement, we feel that it is your duty to resign and come home, to the end that someone may be chosen who will act in harmony with the Progressive sentiment of the greatly preponderant masses of registered Republican voters in California."

WASHINGTON, July 18.—"I shall not resign," said Senator Works, when he was asked what he meant to do about the telegram from California Progressives. "Why should I? These people are not even members of the Republican party—they have no right to ask my resignation."

Mr. Works said he had telegraphed the signers of the telegram that he would write to them.

AMERICANS SEIZED FOR ILLEGAL FISHING

VICTORIA, B. C., July 18.—Details of the seizure of the American gable launch Bonita, of Seattle, by the fishery protected cruiser Newington were given today at Esquimalt by officers of the latter.

The Bonita, which had only two men aboard, was captured on Tuesday after a running fight in which a score or more of rifle shots were fired at the Americans by Capt. Ledwell of the Newington. No one was injured.

The American boat was not captured until it had been rammed and capsized and its crew made helpless by being thrown into the water.

The Newington-sighted the Americans trolling within the three-mile limit off Nootka early in the morning.

"What are you doing there," called Ledwell from the cruiser.

"Making a passage," the Bonita answered.

"What are you doing with your trolls out?"

There was no reply and the Bonita altered her course and started off. Ledwell fired a shot across her bow and followed this up with a fusillade. The two Americans crouched low in their boat and steered a constantly shifting course in an effort to get to safety beyond the three-mile limit.

The Newington circled around them, Ledwell continuing to fire at intervals. Finally the cruiser closed in and struck the launch amidships, rolling it completely over. The men on board leaped as their craft capsized.

The two Americans, whose names are not given in Ledwell's report, were picked up out of the water and made prisoners on board the Newington, which proceeded to Esquimalt, where Ledwell turned the Bonita over to the resident officer of his majesty navy. The vessel now lies awaiting confiscation to the King as a prize.

BITS OF SPORT

The strong Rye Beach nine and the team from Port Constitution will play at the Farragut House on Saturday afternoon.

Hughie Jennings felt very sore over the beating his team got at the hands of the Speed Boys, but said that Boston has the only team in the league that can take four out of five games from the Tigers as they are now in shape to go.

"Red" Corbion of the Kansas City Club, who is linked as a Boston National "future," is battling at a 235 clip in the American Association and has stolen 20 bases in 85 games.

The Highlanders could do little winning against the St. Louis Browns, who, prior to the series in New York, were worrying lest they might fall into last place again.

When you read or hear a knock for Hughie Jennings, think over these just remarks from President Ben Johnson: "One thing must be forgotten when Hugh Jennings is discussed. He won three American League pennants as the manager of the Detroit and knows how to put life into his players. Simply because the Tigers are not leading the race doesn't reflect discredit upon Jennings. He's a good manager and is always trying his best."

If we may read between the lines, we may infer that Jennings, if he is not again manager of the Detroit Tigers next year, will be retained in the service of the American League. If Frank Navin doesn't wish to retain a "good thing," there are others who will grab such a discard.

Before Manager McGraw of the New York Nationals came to Chicago Tuesday he made an attempt to strengthen his pitching staff. Southpaw Tyler of the Boston Braves is the man he tried and is still trying to land. Infielder Groh and outfielder Josh Devere are the men he is willing to give in exchange for the star southpaw of the Boston club. The deal may go through, and it may not. Manager King had the deal under consideration when he left Chicago.

There is quite an array of major league "canon goods" in the American Association battling for better than .300. Among them are to be noted Hinchman, Rossmore, Clymer, Perring, Harry Niles and Jimmy Williams. Scotty Ingerson is hitting .297 for Indianapolis.

Connie Mack will be sending a C. G. D. to Toledo if Harry Krause keeps up his "tuba" Marquard act. Connie's discard was won eight straight games without a defeat, according to the latest unofficial figures.

The Giants are having a hard time on the road. They have dropped seven of nine games played, four out of five to Chicago and three out of four to the St. Louis Cardinals.

That Ray Collins has rounded into such consistent form means a whole lot to the Red Sox in their fight for the pennant.

The Philadelphia Quakers are beginning to give an idea of the sort of ball they would have played all season had they not been so broken up by accidents early in the year. Charley Doolin figures that he can land his team in second place even yet.

The Boston-Detroit series, which stood 4-3 in Boston's favor last Friday morning, now stands 8-4 in favor of the Red Sox.

If it is true that King Gustave of Sweden said to James Thorpe, "You are the most wonderful athlete in the world," when he presented to the Carle Indian trophies for winning the pentathlon and decathlon events, what would those who heard him and approved and applauded the sentiment have thought if they could have seen the wonderful athlete play football, baseball, lacrosse and other games, at all of which he is a star among stars. Why, the Europeans who looked with amazement upon Thorpe's prowess do not begin to know what manner of a marvel he is.

If they think ahead we are all specialists in athletics here, they should see some others of the American team in the various sports at which they excel in college—men like Roy Mercer, Charley Brickley, Lawrence, Whitney, Alma Richards, Ira Davenport, Charley Reid-path and a number of other versatile fellows on our Olympic team.

STOCKHOLM, July 18.—The Olympic regatta which opened here yesterday with a large number of international entries was continued today.

In the second round of the single sculls Messaros, of Hungary, defeated Vermau of Belgium. Messaros' time was 8m 23s.

E. B. Butler of Toronto, rowed over the course alone. Kusik, Russian, beat Heinrich, Austria, the winner's time being 7m 56s. In the race between Kusik and Heinrich yesterday, Kusik won, but as Heinrich made a protest the heat was rowed again today.

In the third round of the single sculls Klineau, England, beat Stahoke, Germany. The Englishman, who was paddling at the end, finished the course in 7m 49 3-10s.

In the second round for out riggers four Denmark beat Finland by one length in 7m 38s. Thames Rowing Club, England, beat the Norway students by a length and a half. The time of the Thames four was 7m 11 5-10s. They were paddling at the end.

In the third round for out riggers four Christchurch beat Belgium by four lengths in 7m 38s. Germany, Ludwigshafen, rowed over.

IF YOU WANT TO KNOW?

Property owners and tax payers received their tax bills Friday. The bills give the total amount due without any statement of amount "taxed on" each piece of property and by a note on the bill you are informed that you can learn what it is for at the city clerk's office. This is the public be good spirit that is making the people tired and dissatisfied. Just why this change has been made is not explained, but possibly it is the way it is done in New York or Chicago.
